THOMAS E. O'BRIEN

Two county incumbents face newly announced opposition this week with the announcement by David M. Seek $2,417 Red Cross Volunteers Wind Up Local Campaign Here This Week

Local Red Cross volunteers in Appomattox, Vera, Pamplin, Oakville, and other county areas are winding up their efforts to collect dimes and dollars for the annual Red Cross Drive in Appomattox County. This Chapter's goal is $2417.00.

This year's appeal is tied to the slogan, "Always There . . . with Your Help." And this year, the American Red Cross and some 90 sister societies mark the centenary of the world-wide Red Cross movement.

William A. Hunter, Chapter volunteer campaign chairman, explained that Red Cross funds backed up by the freely given time and talents of trained volunteers, enable the Chapter to help:

Solve the local and family problems of American servicemen and their dependents through friendly counsel and guidance and emergency communications and financial aid;

Ease the suffering of disaster victims with food, shelter, clothing, medical and nursing care, and with aid in returning to normal living;

Restore the health of the sick and injured with whole blood and its lifesaving components — gamma globulin, serum albumin and fibrinogen;

Keep American families safe by teaching courses in first aid, water safety, home nursing, and mother and baby care, and

Provide school and college students, through their participation in the entire spectrum of Red Cross services, with a training and experience they will need as future community leaders.

Dr. Craven was born in Cleveland, Ga. and reared in Boone, North Carolina. He is a graduate of Hampden - Sydney College and Columbia Theological Seminary, Decatur, Ga. He received his PhD degree from the University of Edinburg in Scotland in 1952. Dr. Craven has held pastorates in Laurel Hill, N.C., Edinburgh, Scotland; Bartow, Fla.; and in Petersburg, Va., before coming to Lynchburg. He is married and he and Mrs. Craven have three children. As Chairman of the Council of Appomattox Presbytery and Chairman of its Stewardship Committee, and as Adult Advisor in the Youth Work of the Synod of Virginia, Dr. Craven is serving ably in the work of his denomination.

The Young People especially, but also the older, find Dr. Craven a very interesting and inspiring speaker in the proclamation of the Word of God.

It is with pleasure that the members of the Appomattox Court House Presbyterian Church, and its pastor, the Rev. Millard G. Stimpson, extend a cordial invitation to all within the community to come and share with them in this week of spiritual enrichment.

There will be special music each evening. A nursery will be provided for the small children.
